Very true.... but a lot of them just don't want to learn...they tell ya to buzz-off,-who-do-you-think-you-are...even on items such as an Antenna tuner lets ya use yer c/b antanna on 80 meters.

Now,I'm not so sure I'd like them to know that won't work too well!

There's too many of them, and they gang up on you,deliberatly QRM, and ...well...so much for 'teaching'.

If you get a shock while servicing your equipment
DON'T JUMP! You might break an expensive tube.
